The Transactions include papers in all departments of the Yorkshire fauna and flora, and are issued in annual parts containing signatures of the various sections (A-Z); the groups are pagged independently, and in the Library of Congress set they are bound according to their composition as volumes and not as originally issued. For convenience in identifying the parts, the contents given below are in two arrangements, first in the order of publication and second as monographs assembled from the parts. The covers of pt. 1-35, which contain much valuable bibliographical information concerning the set, are bound together in one volume. A record of this publication, with full con- tent of pts. 1-35 is given in T. Shep-
